1.0 Purpose

This report proposes miscellaneous amendments to the Zoning Bylaw (Appendix A), Development Procedures Bylaw (Appendix B), Official Community Plan (Appendix C), and Sign Bylaw (Appendix D). The proposed bylaw amendments would provide greater clarity to existing regulations, correct inadvertent errors, and address inconsistencies. Specific amendments are proposed to provide improvements and greater flexibility for non-habitable attics, power pole installation, heat pumps, accessory buildings and structures, and ferry terminal operations accessory infrastructure.

2.0 Legislation/Bylaw/Policy

The Local Government Act (LGA) requires that a public hearing be held on the proposed Zoning and Official Community Plan amendment bylaws, in accordance with sections 464 through 470.

Zoning Bylaw No. 4662, 2010, regulates development of property and buildings in the District. Development Procedures Bylaw No. 4940, 2017, outlines procedures for administering and processing development applications. Sign Bylaw No. 4499, 2007, regulates District sign requirements.

3.0 Official Community Plan

Official Community Plan

The Official Community Plan (OCP) includes development permit areas (DPAs) which contain area-specific policies and guidelines that direct development.

6.0 Analysis

6.1 Discussion

Zoning Bylaw Amendments

The proposed amendments to the Zoning Bylaw (Appendix A) are described below:

- a) Attic, Non-habitable

The current definition of “Attic, non-habitable” requires a maximum height of 1.7 m (5.57 ft) for pitched roof attics to be considered non-habitable. This requirement results in non-compliance for many conventional single-family dwellings, as typical pitched roof designs commonly exceed the 1.7 m height limit. In contrast, flat roof attics can be defined as “Attic, non-habitable” if the space is rendered unusable by structurally required roof members spaced no more than 0.6 metres apart.

An amendment is proposed to the definition of “Attic, non-habitable” that is less restrictive, by eliminating the difference for what is considered a non-habitable attic for both pitched and flat roofs. As such, an attic with a pitched roof that exceeds the 1.7 m height limit may still be considered non-habitable if the space is rendered unusable by structurally required roof members spaced no more than 0.6 metres apart. The proposed amendment would resolve the non-compliance issue affecting many conventional single-family dwellings with pitched roofs.

b) Garden Wall

“Garden wall” is currently defined as a vertical structure used as an enclosure or a screen of all or part of a site where the thickness is more than 0.08 m. The existing definition of “Garden wall” does not specify that it is not intended for soil or rock-retaining purposes, unlike the definition of “Retaining wall”, which is a structure constructed to retain soil or rock. An amendment is proposed to clarify the definition of “Garden wall” that limits its height to 1.2 m (3.94 ft.), as it qualifies as a structure and is not intended to retain soil or rock. As a structure, it must comply with setback requirements. This will provide guidance to staff regarding siting and height regulations for garden walls.

c) Short-term Rental Accommodation

An amendment is proposed to add “Host” to the Zoning Bylaw definitions. “Host” is proposed to be defined as a person who is legally entitled to possession of a property where short-term rental accommodation services are provided or who arranges the short-term rental.

A consequential amendment is proposed to Section 130.18(2)(a), replacing the word “operator” with “host”. Section 130.18 currently refers to both “operator” and “host”. The amendment is proposed to eliminate any possible confusion between the two words, as Section 130.18 will only refer to “host” moving forward. An additional amendment is proposed to Section 130.18(3), which permits a person to operate a short-term rental in a separate dwelling located on the same lot as their principal residence, such as a coach house or secondary suite.

The amendments are intended to support Bylaw and Licensing staff processes and efforts to clarify regulations for applicants on who is permitted to operate a short-term rental, and where a short-term rental is permitted on a residential site. Short-term rental license holders are still only permitted to operate a maximum of one short-term rental per principal residence and associated lot.

d) Shipping Containers

An amendment to Section 120.01(8) is proposed to not permit shipping containers on residential sites (with the exception of shipping containers used temporarily for construction activities). Shipping container installation is subject to relevant building permit requirements and must demonstrate compliance with the BC Building Code if they are greater than 10 m². Staff seldom see shipping containers qualify as buildings, as it is difficult for shipping containers to comply with the BC Building Code. In addition, shipping containers are often viewed as unsightly when located on residential sites.

The proposed amendment does not disqualify the use of shipping container-based technology for dwellings if it is integrated within an overall building design, and a professional BC Building Code consultant qualifies it as meeting the BC Building Code.

e) Power Poles

Section 120.27(10) is proposed to be amended to allow power poles supporting electrical services to be located within a required yard and exceed the permitted height of an accessory structure. Power poles on private properties are sometimes required for electrical service, such as in circumstances where a service wire will be longer than 30 m from BC Hydro's point of connection to the service location, or if service wire creates an aerial trespass over a neighbouring property. In addition, BC Hydro requires private power poles to be located within 3 m of a lane or roadway. Staff note that most Board of Variance (BOV) applications are for power poles proposing to vary yard setbacks and accessory structure height. All previous BOV applications have been approved. The amendment would eliminate power pole applications to the BOV and result in a more streamlined permit application review process.

f) Heat Pump

Heat pumps provide for an efficient heating and cooling system by moving heat in and out of homes using electricity. As British Columbia primarily generates its electricity from renewable energy, switching from fossil-fuel systems to a heat pump may significantly reduce a home's carbon emissions.

Council had previously approved an amendment to Section 120.27(7) that allowed heat pumps to be located anywhere on a site. However, a heat pump is specifically defined as a structure under the Zoning Bylaw definition of “structure”. Section 130.01(3) specifies that no part of a structure shall be located in a required yard. As such, an amendment is proposed to Section 130.01(3)(b) to clarify that although heat pumps are “structures”, they are permitted to be located anywhere on a site. The amendment clarifies heat pump siting regulations, further facilitating their installation on residential sites within the District.

g) Accessory Buildings and Structures

The Zoning Bylaw currently places more restrictive siting regulations for detached accessory buildings (e.g. garages) and structures than one-storey detached secondary suites (coach houses). For example, the minimum side yard setback requirement for a one-storey detached accessory building (e.g. detached garage) on a RS3-zoned lot with a site width of 20 m that includes a two-storey single-family dwelling is 2 m. In contrast, a one-storey coach house located on the same lot has a reduced minimum side yard setback of 1.52 m.

An amendment is proposed to Section 130.01(3) to permit a detached accessory building a minimum side yard setback of 1.52 m in residential zones. This aligns with the minimum side yard setback for a one-storey coach house. Generally speaking, a coach house is considered a more intensive land use than an accessory building (e.g. detached garage). Therefore, staff recommend aligning the minimum side yard setback requirements for accessory buildings (less intensive land use) with one-storey coach house requirements to allow for more flexible siting for accessory buildings.

h) Physicians’ Office

An amendment is proposed to remove Section 130.04(2), regarding permitting physicians’ offices in dwellings located in Duplex Dwelling and Multiple Dwelling Zones, as it is redundant. Physician’s offices are permitted in all zones that permit home-based businesses (all residential zones). This would remove any confusion regarding the specific zones that physicians’ offices are permitted within..

i) Bicycle Parking

Section 143.01(3) is proposed to be amended to correct a discrepancy regarding townhouse parking requirements. Section 143.01(3) indicates that 1.5 bicycle parking spaces are required per townhouse dwelling unit. However, Section 144.01(3) indicates that 2 bicycle spaces shall be provided per ground-oriented dwelling unit. The Zoning Bylaw definition of “dwelling, ground-oriented” includes examples of ground-oriented dwellings such as infill, multiplexes, and rowhouses (i.e. townhouses). Section 143.01(3) is proposed to be amended to increase the required number of bicycle parking spaces for townhouses from 1.5 to 2.

An additional amendment to Section 143.01(4) is proposed to remove vehicle parking space reductions for each bicycle parking space required. This aligns with previous climate action amendments that had already reduced vehicle parking requirements.

j) RS3 Alternative Site Area, Width, and/or Depth

An amendment to Section 203.13(1) is proposed to correct an inadvertent numbering and title error.

k) Ferry Terminal Operations Accessory Infrastructure

Section 453.06(1) is proposed to be amended to clarify a height exemption for ferry terminal infrastructure, implementing more general language regarding standard infrastructure for ferry terminal operations. The current height exemption within the M3 Zone related to the Horseshoe Bay ferry terminal was written to reflect the historic ferry terminal structures and operation. The proposed amendment would modernise the height exemption to allow for standard infrastructure related to ferry terminal operations, in alignment with the intent of the existing M3 Zone. This amendment would allow for BC Ferries to complete required upgrade works to modernize the Horseshoe Bay Ferry Terminal facility including installation of a replacement control tower.

l) Minimum Setback Requirements for Parcel 7 in Folkestone Way

An amendment to Section 610.05(4) is proposed to correct an inadvertent error, changing the north setback from “10.6 m” to “7.6 m”. This aligns with the corresponding approved Development Permit.

m) Conditions of Use for Caulfeild Zone

An amendment is proposed to Section 686.04 to add a condition of use for residential buildings containing dwelling units in Residential Area A and B, in which all units are required to be located in a single building. This aligns with the intent of the zoning adopted to replace the previous Caulfeild Land Use Contract where secondary detached dwellings were not contemplated through the community consultation process or Council approval.

Development Procedures Bylaw Amendments

The proposed amendments to the Development Procedures Bylaw (Appendix B) are described below:

a) Neighbourhood Areas BF-D1 and BF-D4

A previous amendment to the Official Community Plan (OCP) updated the policy numbers for Whitby Estates and Clyde Avenue

Area from “BF-D1” and “BF-D4” to “BF-B 3.2” and “BF-B 3.3”. Amendments are proposed to Part 4 – Definitions and Part 19 - Delegation to also update references of Policy “BF-D1” and “BF-D4” to “BF-B 3.2” and “BF-B 3.3” within the Development Procedures Bylaw, aligning with previous amendments to the OCP.

b) Delegation

Part 19.2 currently references Parts “19.8 to 19.23”. However, the current list ends at Part 19.24. Part 19.2 is proposed to be amended to correct this inadvertent numbering error, updating “19.23” to “19.24”.

Official Community Plan (OCP) Amendments

The proposed amendments to the Official Community Plan (Appendix C) are described below:

a) Guidelines BF-B 3.2 Whitby Estates and BF-B 3.3 Clyde Avenue Area East of Taylor Way

As noted above, a previous amendment to the OCP updated the policy numbers for Whitby Estates and Clyde Avenue East of Taylor Way from “BF-D1” and “BF-D4” to “BF-B 3.2” and “BF-B 3.3”. However, various policy numbers still reference “BF-D1” and “BF-D4”. An amendment is proposed to update the policy numbers.

Sign Bylaw Amendments

The proposed amendments to the Sign Bylaw (Appendix D) are described below:

a) General Prohibitions

Opaque window signs are typically made from materials that block light, preventing more vibrant and active store frontages. As such, a fully opaque sign that covers a whole window removes the window’s function as an opening for a building intended to admit light and allowing people to see through it. An amendment is proposed to Part 7.2 to add fully opaque signs that cover a whole window to the list of general prohibitions.

b) Suspended signs

Part 19.2 is proposed to be amended to fix an inadvertent error regarding the maximum permitted area for suspended signs. The current text says “15 m²”, when it should say “0.15 m²”.

6.2 Public Engagement and Outreach

A public hearing must be held to consider the proposed Zoning and Official Community Plan amendment bylaws. Public notice will be given in accordance with District procedures.

6.3 Other Communication, Consultation, and Research

Planning staff have consulted with District staff from other relevant departments as appropriate.

7.0 Options

7.1 Recommended Option

That Council give the recommended readings to the proposed bylaws and set the date for public hearing for the Zoning and Official Community Plan amendment bylaws.

7.2 Considered Options

- a) That Council give readings to the proposed bylaws and set an alternate date (to be specified) for a public hearing; or
- b) Defer consideration pending the receipt of additional information (to be specified) to assist in consideration of the proposed bylaws; or
- c) Reject the proposed bylaws.

8.0 Conclusion

The proposed miscellaneous bylaw amendments will improve interpretation and application of the bylaws, allow for greater flexibility for buildings and structures highlighted in this report, fill in gaps in existing regulations and policy, address inconsistencies, and correct inadvertent errors. Staff recommend approval of the proposed bylaw amendments.
