Definitions:
Dwelling, Ground-Oriented: two or more principal dwellings and/or principal residential buildings – such as triplexes, multiplexes, rowhouses, and townhouses, each with access to the street, lane or site without the use of common, enclosed stairwells or corridors – that may be on a single lot or subdivided into separate lots.
Building, Apartment: a building, except as otherwise defined herein, containing three or more dwelling units in separate, multiple storeys, but does not include: (a) townhouses; or (b) dwellings over commercial premises.
Market Rental Units are units rented at market rate (i.e., without any legal restrictions binding the rental unit to a certain level of rent).
Non-Market Rental Units are units with a legal obligation (i.e., housing agreement, zoning) to be rented at a non-market rate.
Below-Market Rental Units are units rented at or below 30% of the local Housing Income Limits (HIL) per unit size (please refer to most recent BC Housing HIL levels published for Vancouver).
Below-Market Rental Units with On-Site Supports are units rented at the Income Assistance Shelter rate providing permanent housing and on-site supports for people to transition out of homelessness.
Co-op Housing: also known as housing co-operative, means housing provided to members of an organization incorporated under the Cooperative Association Act, and includes non-profit housing co-operatives and equity co-operatives.
