

APPLICATION TO HOLD A SPECIAL EVENT, TOURNAMENT, OR RUN/WALK

Thank you for contacting the District of West Vancouver regarding hosting an event, tournament, or run/walk in a public space. Please complete this application form and return by email, mail, or in person to the address shown to above.

The District's Special Events Policy 0282-20-116 provides a framework to guide the approval of events and festivals in West Vancouver parks, roadways, and public buildings and property.

While not all questions may apply to your event, please fill out the application with as much detail as possible to assist Special Events staff in evaluating your event.

Once your application has been reviewed, you will be contacted by a Special Events representative who will confirm approval, conditions of use, fees, and event details with you.

The Special Event Permit Fee is $164 for not-for-profit events and $323 for commercial events.

The District does not permit the use of inflatable amusement structures in public areas.

Please ensure the estimated attendance for your event is as accurate as possible, this is important to the ecological and staffing impacts of the area.

Please be aware we may not be able to accommodate events with less than 30 days' notice.

You will be required to supply the following documents:

- signed Special Events Permit application (signature required on page 3)
- proof of insurance ($2 million CGL showing the District of West Vancouver as an additional insured)
- West Vancouver Business License for any participating businesses and food vendors
 - food vendors must submit, and receive approval for, a Vancouver Coastal Health Temporary Food Services Application at least 14 days in advance of the event
- site layout
- route map for walks and runs
- copy of event brochure or advertising material, and event website
